FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WYNOT Radio Theatre Returns to the FAC!

COLORADO SPRINGS (Dec. 16, 2016) — The Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center (FAC) is excited to welcome the hilarious WYNOT Radio Theatre troupe back to the FAC for their fourth residency presenting The Other Coast Caper, directed by Cory Moosman Jan 13-29, 2017.

This newest “episode” is a theatrical SPOOF of the golden age of radio – a time when men were men, dames had moxie, and the sound of adventure filled the air waves! The Colorado Springs Gazette calls it a “hilarious send-up of old-time radio,” complete with twistedly nostalgic commercials, hysterical ‘off-air’ actor interaction and audience participation. This ain’t your Grandpa’s Old Time Radio Show! The WYNOT Radio Theatre Show is an evening of side splitting comedy you don’t want to miss!

The Other Coast Caper was written by Cory Moosman and Sammy Gleason and the cast features Rosina Sonntag, Janson Fangio, Taylor Cardinal, Sammy Gleason, and Cory Moosman.

Fine Arts Center

In 1919 the Broadmoor Art Academy (BAA) was established in the former home of philanthropists Julie and Spencer Penrose. After the Great Depression hit in 1929, the BAA looked at diversifying further, expanding into an entire arts district under one roof. And that’s how the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center (FAC) came to be. The FAC, built in 1936, is a privately funded, non-profit art museum, professional theatre company and arts education center. Built on the foundation of the prestigious BAA, the FAC carries the legacy of Colorado’s arts and cultural heritage. One of 16 charter members of the American Alliance of Museums, the FAC offers the best in visual arts via its permanent collection and travelling exhibitions, as a TCG member theatre company, and through arts education with the FAC’s Bemis School of Art. The FAC building is considered an architectural treasure in the Rocky Mountain region, designed by John Gaw Meem, and is listed on the National Register of Historical Places.
